

Dr. Larry McKinney, President
Simpson University

Dr. Larry J. McKinney, a native of Farmington, Pennsylvania, holds a Bachelor of Science in Bible from Philadelphia Biblical University (1972), a Master of Arts in Educational Ministries from Wheaton College (1974), and a Doctor of Education in Higher Education Administration from Temple University (1986).

Dr. McKinney is the President of Simpson University in Redding, California, a Christian liberal arts institution that serves approximately 1,100 students. He previously served as Executive Director of the Association for Biblical Higher Education in Orlando, FL from 2001-2006, President of Providence College and Seminary in Otterburne, Manitoba (CANADA) from 1993-2001, and as Vice President for Student Development at Philadelphia Biblical University in Langhorne, PA from 1980-1993. Prior to entering a career in Christian higher education, he worked as the Executive Director of Fay-West Youth for Christ in Uniontown, PA from 1972-1980. He also has ten years of experience as a part-time pastor.

In addition to his responsibilities with Simpson University, Dr. McKinney also engages in teaching, and speaking for institutions of higher education, churches, and conferences. He has written numerous articles for educational and leadership journals and authored Equipping for Service: A Historical Account of the Bible College Movement in North America.

Larry and his wife, Debbie, reside in Redding, California. They have been married for 34 years. Debbie, also a graduate of Philadelphia Biblical University, has spent twenty years as an elementary teacher and early childhood teacher.

They have two married children Jason (31) and Jamie (30), and two grandchildren. The McKinney's consider themselves "CanAmericans" because they have lived in and hold citizenship in both Canada and the United States. We are delighted to be hosting the McKinney's at Long Beach Alliance Church, and are looking forward to many years of fruitful ministry together in partnership with Simpson University!
