

Behold, Your King!

Long Beach Alliance Church • March 6, 2016 • Guest Jack Littlefield
Revelation 11:15-17; 17:14; 19:16; 1 Timothy 6:15

1) Who is the King?

- A) Jesus is the King predicted in prophecy, see Bonus Section #1
- B) Jesus is the King announced by angels, Luke 1:32-33; 2:11
- C) Jesus is the King worshiped by magi, Matthew 2:1-11
- D) Jesus is the King as proven by His miracles, Matthew; Mark; Luke; John
- E) Jesus is the King as proclaimed by Himself, John 18:37
- F) Jesus is the King as hailed by the multitudes, John 12:12-15
- G) Jesus is the King who fascinated the Roman governor, John 18:33, 37, 39; 19:14, 15, 19, 21-22
- H) Jesus is the King who was enthroned on a Cross, John 19:1-3, 19

2) What is He the King of?

- A) Jesus always was the King: from His birth, Matthew 2:2, and even before His birth, in prophecy.
- B) In His earthly ministry Jesus demonstrated His rule over nature, demons, disease, death.
- C) After His resurrection, the Father officially gave Jesus “all authority,” Matthew 28:18; Ephesians 1:20-22; Psalm 2:7-9; 110:1-2. Jesus’ rule as King should be most clearly seen in His authority over His Church, Ephesians 1:22-23; 5:23-24.
- D) After His Second Coming, Jesus’ Kingship will be fully revealed and recognized as He more directly rules over the earth, Isaiah 11; Zechariah 14:9; Hebrews 2:5-8.

3) Who are the King’s subjects?

- A) Those who believe in Him, Acts 17:7; Ephesians 1:21-22
- B) Those who reject Him, Philippians 2:9-11; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10

4) What is the King’s Great Commission?

Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:47; John 20:21; Acts 1:8

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations”:

- A) Commanded by Jesus, Matthew 28:19-20
- B) Empowered by Jesus, Matthew 28:18
- C) Accompanied by Jesus, Matthew 28:20
- D) Proclaiming Jesus, Matthew 28:19-20
- E) Confident in Jesus, Matthew 28:18-20; 24:14; 13:8, 23; Genesis 12:3; Revelation 5:9
