Too often we find our identity and worth in things other than the Lord. We choose not to obey or to fear the Lord but rather to serve whatever satisfies our desires. This summer we will examine the life of King Saul. Although he was a man anointed by God, he chose to fear people and serve himself. Do our lives mimic his tragic downfall, or will we reverently fear the Lord and desire to serve Him faithfully day in and day out?

"ONLY FEAR THE LORD & SERVE HIM FAITHFULLY WITH ALL YOUR HEART. FOR CONSIDER WHAT GREAT THINGS HE HAS DONE FOR YOU."
