Summer of Psalms (S.O.P.'s)

Long Beach Alliance Church • August 25, 2019 • Pastor Chris Lankford

1) Psalm 19 - Speak, O Lord

- A. There are two great volumes in the library of God by which mankind can know God. First, there is the book of God's creation (Psalm 19:1-6). Second, there is the book of God's Word (Psalm 19:7-13). Our response to reading these divinely authored books is the measure of our 'theo-literacy' (Psalm 19:14).

2) The Voice from 'Space, the Final Frontier...'

- A. The expanse of the heavens (sun, moon, stars) "declare," "proclaim," "pour out," "reveal," "speak," and give "voice" to God's "glory" and the "work of His hands" (cf. Isaiah 6:3) across the whole earth (Psalm 19:1-4).
- B. No part of the earth escapes this "general revelation" of God (Psalm 19:4-6; 50:6) both literally (the heavens surround our planet) or personally (Psalm 8:3-4; Romans 1:19-20).

3) Consuming God's Word

- A. The "law of the LORD" (Psalm 19:7), an OT phrase for 'Scriptures' (Acts 17:2) or 'Word of God' (1 Thessalonians 2:13), is "perfect," "sure," "right," "pure," "clean," "true," "altogether righteous," "desirable," and "sweet" (Psalm 19:7-10, 119:103, 130).
- B. God's Word gives "reviving," "wisdom" (Psalm 119:130), "joy," and "insight," and is characterized by "eternal endurance," "righteousness," and value greater than "much fine gold" and the sweetest honey (Psalm 19:7-10, 119:103).
- C. This "special revelation" of God through His Word is meant personally for God's servant (David, Psalm 19:11-13).

4) Responding to God's Books

- A. King David's response of active devotion (publicly and privately) to 'reading God's books' of creation & Word ought to beg us to ask, "what is my response to God's revelation?"
